

SUPER VISA

Eligibility

To be eligible, you must;

- be a parent or grandparent of a Canadian citizen or a permanent resident of Canada and have been invited by the child or grandchildren to visit Canada.
- the child or grandchild must provide a signed invitation letter that includes a declaration of financial support for the entire duration of the visit. Proof of funds must be included in the application as evidence of financial capability. The following examples can be used as proof of funds:
 - Documents from the CRA, such as Notice of Assessment (NOA) or T4/T1 for the most recent tax year
 - Employment Insurance Benefit statements
 - Employment letter stating the salary, job title, job description, and date of hire
 - pay stubs
 - bank statements
- has private medical insurance from a Canadian insurance company or an insurance company outside Canada approved by the Minister of Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship? This medical insurance needs to be valid for at least 1 year from the date of entry to Canada; paid in full or in instalments with a deposit; should cover health care, hospitalization, and repatriation; and at least $100,000 emergency coverage.
- apply from outside Canada and must be admissible to enter Canada, e.g., no criminal conviction, medical conditions that endanger public health and safety, etc.
- undergo immigration medical exam, which should be performed by a panel physicians.
- convince the officer that you are a genuine visitor to Canada who will leave voluntarily at the end of the authorized visit.
- show home ties, purpose of the visit, family and finances, and the overall economic and political stability of the home country.